65th West Bengal State Homoeopathic Practitioners' Conference-2024

Dear Doctors, Students & friends,

The Homoeopathic Medical Association of India (HMAI), West Bengal State Branch is going to organise another mega event on 29th, 30th November & 1st December, 2024. This time we shall meet at 'Queen of the Hills' Darjeeling; the attraction of nature lovers from corners of India and also abroad.

The 65th State Homoeopathic Practitioners' conference-2024 will be held at Gorkha Rangamancha Bhawan of Gorkhaland Territorial Administration on last Friday, Saturday of November & 1st of December, 2024. It will be hosted by Darjeeling Unit, HMAI.

The event will be studied with world Class seminar, symposium & Group discussions on different aspects of Classical Homoeopathic Practice. Moreover you will have a glimpse of Gorkha Cultural heritage in form of Saraswati Bandana opening dance and a repertoire of songs & dances by the cultural troop of the Culture & Information Dept. of GTA.

Enjoying scenic beauty of Tiger Hill, Kanchenjunga from Mal and at the same time relishing "Thupka" & "Momo" in your dish will be an ever remaining memory. So join to become part of the event.

It is expected about 1000 Delegates and Participants from all over the State and the Countries abroad will participate in the Conference. The eminent Homoeopathic Researchers, Physicians and Luminaries of the Homoeopathic world will grace the occasion.

To commemorate the occasion a colourful, befitting knowledge bearing Souvenir will be published with valuable articles on the efficacy of Homoeopathic System, including present research work on Homoeopathy.

We on behalf of the organising committee request you earnestly to take part in this mega event and to make the conference a grand success.

65th West Bengal State Homoeopathic Practitioners' Conference-2024

Call for abstract : The West Bengal State Branch, HMAI is pleased to invite the practitioners, academicians, Postgraduate trainees, Researchers, and others to submit abstracts through e-mail: hmai2012@gmail.com for the upcoming oral or e-poster presentation at the Gorkha Rangamancha Bhawan, Mall Bazar, Darjeeling 734101, West Bengal. The shortlisted abstracts will also be published in the program souvenir. This is an opportunity to share your research with colleagues that can broaden the outlook and throw substantial light into different unexplored areas of homoeopathy.

Guidelines for submission: (1) All abstracts should be related to homoeopathy. (2) The online abstract submission portal will be open from 15th August to 31st October, 2024, but abstracts can only be submitted after registering in the main programme. The deadline for submission will not be extended any further. Incomplete or late submissions will not be entertained. (3) Each registrant can submit only one abstract for evaluation. (4) Acceptance of an abstract will be based on peer review. Accepted abstracts will be announced officially on the webpage and through e-mail in the 1st week of November 2024. (5) If you have any questions regarding the submission process, please contact: hmai2012@gmail.com

Abstract formatting guidelines: Abstracts should be submitted under the following categories of articles: (a) Case reports/series. (b) Clinical research—qualitative, quantitative, or mixed methods (c) Review article (d) Disease prevention (e) Fundamental research (f) Health service research (g) In-vitro animal and plant-based research (h) Homoeopathic pathogenetic trials or drug proving (i) Veterinary research (j) Debate or commentary.

N.B. Clinical trial registration number and review registration number should be provided at the end of the abstracts in case of clinical trials and review articles respectively.

Guidelines for abstract preparation: (1) The abstract should be written in concise and academic English. (2) The word limit is a maximum of 300 words excluding the title and keywords. (3) The word limit for the title is 25 words. (4) There should be no references, tables, or figures. (5) Only standard and accepted abbreviations should be used (e.g., HIV). (6) Bold or underline formatting should not be used. (7) The names of the homoeopathic medicines should appear in italics (e.g., Lycopodium clavatum). (8) Presenting author's and co-authors' details should be uploaded during submission: full name, degree, department, affiliation, institution and address, e-mail, phone no, and ORCID ID. (9) Abstracts should preferably be structured using the following subheadings: (a) Background and aim (b) Methods (c) Results (d) Conclusion. (10) Keywords: 3-5 maximum. (11) The presenting author will be responsible for ensuring that all co-authors give their consent to be named and all are aware of the contents of the abstract.

Presentation and results: (1) Acceptance of an abstract for the e-poster presentation will be based on the results of peer review. (2) The first three winners of the e-poster presentation may be called for an oral presentation of 10-15 minutes depending on the schedule of the final program. (3) E-Posters will be available to view throughout the conference with a designated e-poster session and presenters will be expected to stand by their e-poster to be available to answer questions. (4) One author can present one e-poster only. (5) Results will be announced at the closing session of the program. (6) Prizes and certificates will be distributed.
